BEDS 5 BATHS 6 SIZE 600 m2

Description

Penthouse in a historical, 15th century noble palace built by one of the most thought after renaissance architects located a few steps from Palazzo Vecchio.

Located in one of the most renowned residential neighbourhoods of Florence and right in the center, offering the opportunity of authentic Italian living this penthouse gives its guest the biggest of privileges: being walking distance to a number of restaurants, shops, bakeries, ice cream shops or, in one word, life.

Its terraces dominate the city, affording a sweeping view over the unique panorama of Florence's most splendid monuments. A beautiful courtyard with a fountain leads to the elevator that goes directly to the apartment. From the belvedere and terraces of the penthouse, the view of the city's monuments conveys a feeling of airy detachment. By night Palazzo Vecchio, the Duomo, Santa Croce, the Bargello, the Badia, and the lights on the hills of San Miniato and Fiesole appear above the dark roofs of the city.

The apartment, recently restored to adapt it to modern standards of comfort, offers the truly Tuscan interior in its simplicity and linearity combined with elegance. The atmosphere of Florence is buzzy, happy, in-fact this type of location really adds value to the beauty of the property itself, a fabulous 600 square meters of living space in classic yet contemporary style and luxurious furnishing.

While internationally famous attractions are just minutes away of an easy walk, guests local concierge will be available to book private cars to explore the surrounding areas as well, including those off the beaten path villages that shall never be missed, and to provide a complete list of events and concerts happening all around the property during their stay, while our selection of places and restaurants
